CLUB MYKONOS WARNS OF BOGUS ACCOMMODATION BEING SOLD ILLEGALLY UNDER ITS BRAND NAME

Club Mykonos hereby issues a warning to all consumers to be aware of various scams involving fraudsters offering accommodation for rental under the Club Mykonos brand name.

We request that all potential customers making use of sites such as OLX, Junkmail and Gumtree to be aware of scam offers that have been advertised on these sites. Please be cautious when making rental bookings via classified advertisements. We have been made aware of the fact that fraudsters are offering false accommodation to those indicating interest in staying at our Resort.

We also ask members of the various vacation clubs (RCI, Dream Vacations, Club Leisure) to make sure that they keep their membership details and reservation numbers confidential and not post them on any websites or classified advertisement media, to help prevent fraud.

Some of the people fraudulently selling rental units are illegally making use of stolen Club Mykonos images, logos, website content and brand names. There are numerous fraudulent advertisers offering a similar offering to Club Mykonos, and the Resort has asked that these advertisements be removed from the websites concerned.

This is, however, an ongoing process and fresh fraudulent adverts are posted daily. Several people have already fallen victim to fraud.

Anyone who has been a victim of this fraud should open a case with the South African Police Service immediately.
