CLUB MYKONOS SUPPORTS BANDANA DAY FOR FOURTH YEAR

12 October 2015: Club Mykonos Resort and Casino staff were once again honoured to be part of national bandana day. They throw on their Sunflower Fund Bandana's in support of National Bandana Day. Over 400 staff members welcomed holiday goers to the resort while kited out in the striking accessory.

National Bandana Day is an initiative that was started by the Sunflower Fund in order to raise funds and awareness for bone marrow typing.

The Sunflower Fund was formed in 1999, their aim being to secure financial support in order to increase the number of bone marrow stem cell donor's in South Africa. For more information on how you can get involved, visit their website: <http://www.sunflowerfund.org.za/>
