CLUB MYKONOS GENERAL MANAGER GETS JAILED IN SUPPORT OF CANSA

1 October 2016: There is nothing quite like having great fun for a great cause. On 1st October 2016 members of our community, including Mayor - Marius Koen, our General Manager – Jon Kilroe-Smith and Weslander representative – Christo Momsen, volunteered to be arrested, locked up and bailed out for charitable donations.

The temporary jail was constructed at the Epic Centre in Vredenburg, and passers-by got actively involved in paying “bail” to have these prominent personalities released.

All donations received were put straight back into the local CANSA chapter, ensuring that our community felt the benefit of funds raised.

To find out more about the latest CANSA event and how you can get involved contact Letitia Van Rensburg on 082 497 72096 or lvansenburg@cansa.org.za
